

Ziggy's Coat

One day it was raining. Ziggy the dog was feeling cold. He wanted to make a coat to keep him warm. So he went to a tailor and said "Tailor, tailor, make me a coat." Tailor said, "Go away I have no time." Ziggy barked, "Bow, bow, bow the tailor is no good; he can't stitch a coat for a dog." Tailor said, "Shsss don't make noise I will make you a coat."

Rahim, the ragpicker liked the coat. He took it away and ran. Ziggy ran after him and said, "You are a beggar and a thief, you steal poor dog's coats." The boy got angry and returned the coat and went away. Ziggy told grandma to put the coat on him. Grandmother said, "I am busy, go away!" "Oh, oh," said Ziggy, "grandma is old and lazy she can't even help a little doggie." Grandmother said, "Shssss keep quiet, come here I will put the coat on you."

Ziggy was happy and warm so he went to sleep
