

Brother Rivalry

Once upon a time, there were two brothers named Ed and Ted who always competed against each other. No matter how hard Ted tried, Ed always did everything better.

See, Ed was 1 year _____ than his brother Ted. And when they measured their heights, Ed was always one foot _____ than his brother.

They loved kicking the soccer ball, but no matter how hard Ted tried, Ed always kicked the ball _____ than his brother Ted.

When they played basketball too, Ed always jumped _____ than his brother too.

Finally, when they ran to the finish line, Ed was always a couple of seconds _____ than Ted.

Ted was going to give up on being the best because his brother was always better than everything he did.

Ed and Ted were both exhausted. Their mom called them back in the house for dinner. They sat down at the table but it was Ted who was _____ than his brother because he ate his whole meal.

At that point, both boys realized that you can't be better at everything than your brother in life.
