

What will the world be like in 100 years?

in store = used to say what might happen in the future life expectancy (n.) = how many years a person is likely to live overtake (v.) = to become better than sth abolish (v.) = to end an activity, process, etc.

retirement age (n.) = how old a person is when they stop working pint (n.) = a unit of measurement for liquids

quid (n.) = one pound in money

B. You are going to watch a video about the world 100 years from now. Which of the following topics do you think will be mentioned? Watch the video and check your answers.

- a pint of milk
- pollution
- Mars
- flying cars
- robots

C Watch again and write T for True or F for False.

1. In the area that Megan lives, the average life expectancy is just over 100 years.
2. According to Aubrey de Grey, the ageing process might be prevented in the future.
3. It is predicted that people will be living on Mars by 2060.
4. The reporter says that by the time Megan is a teenager, cars won't run on petrol any more.
5. At the start of the next century, three out of five people on Earth will live in cities.
6. There will be at least nine billion people living on the planet at the beginning of the next century.
7. A pint of milk will cost fifteen pounds when Megan is 90 years old.

