

Living Hope Education
 English Department
 Teacher Andrés Montoya Jiménez
 English Project
 II Trimester
 Grade: Second
 Percentage: 15%

Student's Name: _____.

Percentage:

Grade:

Rubric

Indicators	Points	Points Obtained
Write an ailment.	1
Write how he/she feels in a full-sentence structure.	2
Write what body part hurts in a full-sentence structure.	2
Identifies greetings.	1
Includes a greeting in the conversation.	1
Tell the doctor how you feel.	1
Ask the patient what's wrong.	1
Tell the doctor what the problem is and what body part hurts.	2
Identify sympathy phrases.	1
Show sympathy to the patient by using at least one of the phrases for showing sympathy.	1
Ask the doctor what you should do in a full-sentence structure.	2
Tell the patient what he/she should do in a full-sentence structure.	2
Use one of the health verbs studied in class.	1

Pronounce should accurately.	1
Pronounce ailments vocabulary correctly.	1
Total	20

Context: Students role-play a conversation between a doctor and a patient. Student A is sick and student B is the doctor. Students take both roles.

Question: Why do I get sick?

I Part - Written part

Patient's information:

1. Write what your problem is.

2. Write how you feel.

3. Write what hurts.

II Part – Oral production

