Living Hope Education
English Department
Teacher Andrés Montoya Jiménez
English Project
II Trimester

Grade: Second Percentage: 15%

Student's Name:
Percentage:	Grade:

Rubric

Indicators	Points	Points Obtained
Write an ailment.	1
Write how he/she feels	2
in a full-sentence
structure.
Write what body part	2
hurts in a full-sentence
structure.
Identifies greetings.	1
Includes a greeting in	1
the conversation.
Tell the doctor how you	1
feel.
Ask the patient what's	1
wrong.
Tell the doctor what the	2
problem is and what body part hurts.
Identify sympathy	1
phrases.
Show sympathy to the	1
patient by using at least one of the phrases for showing sympathy.
Ask the doctor what you	2
should do in a full-
sentence structure.
Tell the patient what	2
he/she should do in a
full-sentence structure.	9.00
Use one of the health	1
verbs studied in class.

Pronounce	should	1
accurately.
Pronounce	ailments	1
vocabulary co	rrectly.
Total		20

Context: Students role-play a conversation between a doctor and a patient. Student A is sick and student B is the doctor. Students take both roles.

Question: Why do I get sick?
I Part - Written part
Patient's information:
1. Write what your problem is.
2. Write how you feel.
3. Write what hurts.
3. Write what hurts.

II Part - Oral production

a. Greet the doctor.

b. Greet the patient.

c. Say how you feel.

d. Ask what's wrong.

e. Say what the problem is d. Show sympathy. and what hurts.

f. Ask what you should do.

g. Say what he/she should do.