

Degrees of certainty May, Might, Will

- 1) Look at the chart, complete the sentences with the correct form of may, might, or will and the words in parenthesis.

won't	0%
probably won't	25%
may/may not - might/might not	50%
probably will	75%
will	100%

Example: Dough and Joe have an exam on Monday, so they may not/might not (be) at Fran's party tonight. (50%)

- Tina doesn't enjoy travelling, so she _____ (visit) her friends in Peru next summer. (0%)
- You love helping people, so you _____ (go) to university and become a doctor. (100%)
- I have some money, so I _____ (buy) that. (50%)
- Mike and I _____ (get) engaged this year. (25%)
- Grant _____ (leave) home after he graduates. (75%)

- 2) Look at the information in the chart. Then, write sentences about Miguel and Julia using the correct form of may, might, or will.

	Miguel	Julia
get a driver's license	0%
1 get engaged		75%
2 do volunteer work	25%
3 go traveling		50%
4 earn lots of money	100%	25%

Example: Miguel won't get a driver's license.

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____