

Question 1 One. Which day is the man's appointment?

Man: I'd like to make an appointment to see Dr Owen tomorrow morning, please.
Woman: That's Thursday. He's not free at all tomorrow. What about Friday afternoon? If not, it will have to be Monday morning.
Man: I can't come any afternoon. I suppose I'll have to have the morning appointment then.
Woman: OK, we'll see you at nine. What's your . . .

Question 2 Two. What is the woman going to eat?

Man: I'm going to have chicken and salad. What would you like?
Woman: Um, the soup looks good, but the weather's a bit too warm for anything hot.
Man: Why don't you have sandwiches?
Woman: They don't look very nice. I think I'll have the same as you.

Question 3 Three. Which train will the woman take?

Woman: When is the next train to Ashford?
Man: I'm afraid you're just too late for the eleven thirty. The next one is twelve forty-five, but you'll have to change trains. The two fifteen is quicker because it goes straight to Ashford.
Woman: I don't mind changing trains – I'll have a return ticket, please.
Man: There you are.

Question 4 Four. How much did the man pay for the camera?

Man: I've bought a new camera.
Woman: It looks expensive. Cameras like that cost about a hundred and fifty pounds, don't they?
Man: This was a hundred and seventy-five pounds but the man in the shop took fifteen pounds off the price because it was in the shop window and there was no box for it.
Woman: A hundred and sixty pounds is still a lot of money. I hope it takes good pictures!

Question 5 Five. Which race did the girl win?

Girl: Were you at the sports competition on Saturday?
Boy: Yes. I saw you come first in your bicycle race. But your best sport is swimming, isn't it?
Girl: Yes – but I was second in that. Next year I'm going to try running in the eight hundred metres too.
Boy: Wow! You are good at sports!
