

Simple Past Regular verbs

I. Write POSITIVE SENTENCES in SIMPLE PAST.

- 1. The director (approve) the new rules.
- 2. I (admit) the new evidence.
- 3. My mother (pick up) my brother this afternoon.
- 4. My best friend (phone) me several times this morning.
- 5. She (marry) him last year.
- 6. My sister (laugh) at me yesterday.
- 7. He (watch) the same film several times last weekend.
- 8. He (cry) a lot last night.
- 9. My sister (identify) the correct answer.
- 10. My mom (wait) for me this morning.
- 11. They (answer) this question twice.
- 12. She (obey) her teacher immediately.

II. Write NEGATIVE SENTENCES in SIMPLE PAST.

- 1. She studied for her test yesterday afternoon.
- 2. My sister loved "Backstreet Boys" when she was a teenager.
- 3. My brother moved the wrong piece.
- 4. They called me three times yesterday.
- 5. I mopped the floor twice this morning.
- 6. My cousin arrived very late last night.
- 7. He needed to study more for his test.
- 8. They painted the same wall three times last week.
- 9. My little brother played soccer all this morning.
- 10. Carlos chatted with his brother about the problem.
- 11. They copied the same activity twice.
- 12. She traveled to Paris last weekend.

III. Write QUESTIONS in SIMPLE PAST.

- 1. She studied for her test yesterday afternoon.
- 2. My sister loved "Backstreet Boys" when she was a teenager.
- 3. My brother moved the wrong piece.
- 4. They called me three times yesterday.
- 5. I mopped the floor twice this morning.
- 6. My cousin arrived very late last night.
- 7. He needed to study more for his test.
- 8. They painted the same wall three times last week.
- 9. My little brother played soccer all this morning.
- 10. Carlos chatted with his brother about the problem.
- 11. They copied the same activity twice.
- 12. She traveled to Paris last weekend.

