Here are some irregular adjectives

Adjective	comparative	superlative
little	less	least
bad	worse	worst
good	better	best
much/ many	more	most
far	farther	farthest

Use the information above to help you to choose the correct form of the adjectives, in brackets

1. I have the _____ amount of toys. (little)
2. Do you think that tennis is _____ than football? (good)
3. Of the two foods, this one tastes _____. (bad)
4. This is the _____ water I have caught all week. (much)
5. Who lives the _____ away from school? (far)
6. I like icecream the _____. (good)
7. Both are far but St. Philip is _____ away. (far)
8. Of the twin, Gary has _____ hair. (little)
9. _____ toys are on the bed than on the floor. (many)
10. This bag smells the _____. (bad)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Now complete the sentences below with the correct form of the adjective

1. You were the _____ student. (outstanding)
2. My hair is getting _____ and _____. (thin)
3. This bag is _____ than yours. (heavy)
4. I like my little sister the _____. (good)
5. Solomon was the _____ man who ever lived. (wise)
6. Of all the children, I live the _____ from school. (far)
7. That is the _____ dog I have ever seen! (ugly)
8. John is _____ than his brother. (energetic)
9. Of the two piles of garbage, this one is _____. (little)
10. I ate the _____ slice of pie. (big)

LIVEWORKSHEETS