

SCIENCE FICTION: Stephen King

1. Listen and write TRUE or FALSE

- a. Stephen King is very well known for his Romantic Novels.
- b. He started to write a novel when he was in High School.
- c. In his first attempt in 1973 the Novel was named Kennedy's life.
- d. In 1973 people were happy because they have already forgotten Kennedy's death.
- e. He wrote about 140 pages during that years.
- f. His Novel was finally published in 2013.
- g. The novel was called 11/22/63 because was the day in which the man reached the moon.
- h. Stephen King compares 11/22/63 with 09/11/01 to make youngest people understand what Kennedy's assassination meant to people almost half a century ago.

2. Listen Stephen King's speech and complete the words that are missing

I actually tried to write this novel in 1973 when I was teaching in _____, in that time it was called _____, I think I wrote _____ pages, and then I stopped. I'm glade now when I think back, and I didn't go forward with it, because in _____ the was still fresh. It was only ten years in the past, and now are _____ years since it _____, and I think is about long enough...

...I think the people today, people in their 20's and 30's don't realize how hard it was for those who are in their 60's and 70's. It is now our 09/11. It _____ the world. So, there was a real _____ to write this book to say well, if this did change...what would it happen? Could you change the past?.