

READING TIME

firstdates.com

HOME PROFILES QUESTIONNAIRE BLOG CONTACT search

21st Century Dating

Kim

How did you first meet?
During my friend's birthday party.

What were you hoping for?
I just wanted to meet nice people and enjoy the evening in good company.

What was your first impression of Dan?
Wow! He's quite handsome!

What did you talk about?
We mainly talked about our jobs and our families. It seems we both love cycling, so we talked about that too.

Were there any awkward moments?
Only at the beginning; we had just been introduced and I couldn't remember his name.

Would you like to see Dan again?
Yes, I think so. We talked about going for a cycle ride together ...

Dan

How did you first meet?
Kim was at a birthday party. Actually, I was not directly invited but a friend of mine, who was invited, insisted I should go with him.

What were you hoping for?
I didn't know what to expect. I didn't know anybody except for my friend. I just hoped that the people there would be easy-going and nice to talk to.

What was your first impression of Kim?
I thought she looked very pretty. She was wearing a beautiful dress – I felt a bit scruffy next to her!

What did you talk about?
All sorts of things. Kim talked a lot about her family. It is quite big and she spends a lot of time with them.

Were there any awkward moments?
No, none at all. It turned out to be a great evening with good company.

Would you like to see Kim again?
Yes, definitely. I gave her my number so it is up to her. I hope she gets in touch. Fingers crossed!

2 Complete the sentences with Kim or Dan.

- a _____ was not familiar with people at the party.
- b _____ felt not well-dressed close to _____.
- c _____ felt bad because he/she could not remember _____'s name.
- d _____ likes to spend time with the family.
- e _____ is expecting a phone call.