Moral Education Choice Activities - Week 10 - Term 3Choice 1 – Story

Read the story and respond to the questions:

Read the text about modern communication and answer the questions that follow.

All over the world methods of communication have changed radically in the last fifteen years, and the UAE with its growing economy is no exception. Communication and conversation have always been a key part of daily life and civil society in the UAE.

Dubai is one of the fastest growing cities in the world and a good Communication network is essential.

Today, text messaging, the internet and email are a fact of life and almost everyone carries a smart phone. In recent years the new social media networks, – such as Twitter, Facebook, YouTube and Skype, have all become increasingly important.

While modern communication is undoubtedly very important in a fast-growing economy like the UAE, some say that it is changing the lifestyle of the average Emirati family. Time spent on the internet surfing, chatting or gaming means less time for social and family relationships and can lead to social isolation.

Do you think time on the internet or gaming should be limited? Why?

How do you think time on social media can lead to "social isolation"?
