

Superstitions

Yesterday, Tina some pies. She to give some of the pies to Rani, her neighbour. Rani was to receive the plate of pies. She Tina gratefully. Later, she the pies into another container. Rani the plate and put some slices of cake on the plate. She over to Tina's house and gave her the plate of cake. Tina was that there were slices of cake on the plate. Rani that she put something sweet on the plate because of a superstition. According to the superstition, when you a container you must put sweet things in it as it will bring sweetness and good luck to the person receiving the container.

decided	thanked	return	put	walked
washed	surprised	made	explained	delighted