

Presence – whether something is there or not

	Countable for example; apples, cars		Uncountable for example; milk, pollution
✓	(singular) There is a/an ...	(plural) There are some ...	There is some ...
✗	(singular) There isn't a/an ...	(plural) There aren't any ... OR There are no ...	There isn't any ... OR There is no ...
?	(singular) Is there a/an ...?	(plural) Are there any ...?	Is there any ...?

Quantity – how much we have / how much there is

?	How many... are there? Do you eat/drink many...?	How much... is there? Do you eat/drink much...?
---	---	--

	countable	both	uncountable
	many	A lot (of...) / lots (of...)	much quite a lot (of...)
	not many...		not much...
	few.../a few...		little.../a little...
-	none /no...

Quantity compared to how much we want

	countable	both	uncountable	for adjectives
 ☹️	too many... (noun)		too much... (noun)	too... (adjective)
 😊	enough... (noun)			(adjective)... enough
 ☹️	not enough... (noun)			not (adjective) ... enough

A lot (of)/much/many/little/few/any/too much/too many

Complete the sentences below with one of the above words:

1. I've got very _____ close friends – only one or two.
2. We'll have to do this quickly. We haven't got _____ time.
3. I drink _____ tea – around seven cups a day, but I drink very _____ coffee.
4. I never watch TV. There are _____ adverts.
5. I've been eating _____ recently. I'm going to go on a diet.
6. A How _____ free time have you got?
B Very _____. I work long hours.
7. A Have you got any money on you?
B Yes, but not _____. I haven't been to the bank yet.
8. I'm a strict vegetarian. I don't eat _____ meat.
9. A How _____ students came to the first class?
B Not _____, because _____ people are still on holiday.
10. There's only a _____ milk left. Please don't use it all.
11. I can't run very fast. I smoke _____.
12. I forgot my camera, so we couldn't take _____ photos.
13. We've only got a _____ potatoes. Can you buy some?
14. I don't like shopping in Continent. There are _____ people.
15. I read _____ magazines – five or six a week, but not _____ books.