Day 3

Skill: 5.1.3 – Use verbs correctly and appropriately.

Read the notes (textbook: page 68-69)

Subject (S)– Verb (V) Agreement

SV agreement refers to the relationship between the subject and predicate of the sentence. Subjects and verbs must always agree in number and tense.

Number

- Singular subject takes singular verb
- Plural subject takes plural verb

Example:

- 1) Water keeps us healthy.
- 2) When we exercise regularly, we will fit and be healthy.
- 3) It is recommended to drink at least eight glasses of water per day.
- 4) He walks around the lake every morning.

- 9) We do not know the answers for the comprehension questions.
- 10) The animals are placed in the zoo.
- 11) Everyone has to be present in the meeting.
- 12) Somebody has taken her diary.
- 13) Nobody is allowed to leave the hall.
- 14) The team practises hard before their final match.
- 15) The family has a lot of pets.

Note:

- a) Although I and You are singular, they take plural forms of verb.
- b) Indefinite pronouns like anyone, someone, everyone, somebody, no one, and nobody are always singular subjects, so they take plural verb.
- c) Collective nouns generally is singular, so they take singular verb.
