

Rules around the world

Look at the phrases and decide whether they are true or false.

Rules around the world

You can drive in New Zealand when you're 14.

You can't skateboard in a police station in Miami, Florida.

You can get married at 16 in Scotland.

In Australia a child can't buy cigarettes, but can smoke.

You can drink alcohol at 18 in the UK.

In France you can't name a pig Napoleon.

You can't eat chewing-gum in Singapore.

In Switzerland you can't wash your car on Sunday.

- 1 Are these laws true or false?
- 2 Are any of these rules / laws the same in your country?
- 3 Which rules do you find good? Why?

Check your answers below

Answers

You can drive in New Zealand when you're 14. (False; it is 15 when after passing a test you can only drive alone between 6.00 a.m. and 10.00 p.m. You can get a full licence at 17.)

You can get married at 16 in Scotland. (True)

In Australia a child can't buy cigarettes, but can smoke. (True)

You can't skateboard in a police station in Miami, Florida. (True)

You can drink alcohol at 18 in the UK. (True)

In France you can't name a pig Napoleon. (True)

You can't eat chewing-gum in Singapore. (True)

In Switzerland you can't wash your car on Sunday. (True)