Wau is one of the popular _____ games in Malaysia played since hundreds of years ago. Wau consists of _____ Malay motifs that can be seen in the form of patterns and the design available. Back then, villagers used to believe that the vines symbolize a man's life and the _____ represent a woman's life. This game is popular in _____ areas especially in the East Coast of Malaysia which is in Kelantan, Terengganu, also in the Northern states of Perlis and Kedah. Wau are usually played at the end of _____ season as a form of de-stress after working in the fields. This is a game that tests the skills and efficiency of the player in making and _____ the kite. Usually played by male adults, there is no fixed number of players. In fact, the more the merrier. Played in open areas, this game requires a kite and long _____ or yarn. The game can also be played as a competition to choose the highest-flying kite, the most skilful player in flying the kite, the kite that makes the best _____ sound, the most colourful kite, the kite with the most beautiful drawing and the kite that flies in the straightest manner. The three types of wau are Wau Bulan, Wau Kucing and Wau Jala Budi. Wau Bulan, named for its crescent like tail shape. Wau Jala Budi or known as woman's kite, takes the _____ of a woman and Wau Kucing, named after a shape resembling a _____ that is sitting from the rear corner, starting from the head, the body and the tail of the cat.
