SECTION 2

Comprehension - Poetry

TASK 5

Read the poem carefully and answer the questions that follow. Marks will be awarded for answering with complete sentences.

A POEM ABOUT SCHOOL

“I don’t want to go,” he said from his bed.
“I’d rather stay home and eat ice-cream instead.
I can’t stand the teachers and the kids are as bad.
And that’s without mentioning their moms and their dads.
5 The lunches are nasty. They make me feel sick.
And there’s always some joker with a plethora of tricks.
The playground’s unfriendly and inhabited by bullies
And they pick on me daily, which is a bit of a worry;
They all call me names and say they’re going to hurt me.
10 Oh, and the toilets are smelly and also quite dirty.
I think that I’ve learned all I’ll ever know
And nobody likes me so I am not going to go.”
His wife rolled her eyes as she stood at the door.
“But darling, you’re headmaster. That’s what you’re paid for!”
