

Online lectures

3

Spelling.

Paragraph 1

1. didn't eeialrz he was on mute →
2. qhhturotuo his online presentation →
3. students atndntegi his online class →
4. help dcreue the spread of COVID-19 →
5. but then it eforz →
6. professor Wang did not ectnoi →

Paragraph 2

7. ncaotct professor Wang →
8. gone aivlr on the Internet →
9. shocked and sdseters →
10. upset at the thought of angstwi two hours →
11. He has offered to roed the lecture →
12. the professor's phaism →

Put the text in order.

- ( ) his online class heard what professor Wang was talking about. His university switched his classes
- ( ) students says it might have been because the professor was using an iPad and not a computer.
- ( 1 ) A university professor in Singapore gave a two-hour online lecture but didn't
- ( ) froze. The video came back but the mic was off and professor Wang did not notice. One of his
- ( ) through to him. They waved their arms and even tried calling him on his personal phone. A video of the moment he understood his mic was
- ( ) Students tried many times to contact professor Wang during the lesson but could not get
- ( ) presentation, the microphone on his computer was switched off. This meant that none of the students attending
- ( ) off has gone viral on the Internet. It has received more than 653,000 views. After realizing what happened, professor Wang appeared
- ( ) shocked and stressed. He said he was upset at the thought of wasting two hours
- ( ) mishap. She wrote: "I took a class under him before and he teaches well. I feel bad for him."
- ( ) online to help reduce the spread of COVID-19. His lecture started well but then it
- ( ) of his students' time. He has offered to redo the lecture at a different time so his students do not miss
- ( ) realize he was on mute. Professor Wang, who teaches maths, was not aware that throughout his online
- ( ) that class. One of his students posted on social media about the professor's

Put the words in order.

1. A a gave lecture . university two-hour online professor

→ _____

2. on off . computer The microphone switched was his

→ _____

3. students class his of the None heard . attending

→ _____

4. back the The but video mic . not came

→ _____

5. an the using was Because professor iPad .

→ _____

Circle the correct word.

A university professor in Singapore gave a two-hour online lecture but didn't realize he was in / on mute. Professor Wang, who teaches / teach maths, was not aware / beware that throughout his online presentation, the microphone on his computer was switching / switched off. This meant that none of the students attending / attended his online class heard what professor Wang was talked / talking about. His university switched his classes online to help reduction / reduce the spread of COVID-19. His lecture started well but then it freeze / froze. The video came back but the mic was off and professor Wang did not notice / poster. One of his students says it might have been because / what the professor was using an iPad and not a computer.

Circle the correct word.

Students tried many times to contract / contact professor Wang during the lesson but could not get through / thought to him. They waived / waved their arms and even tried calling him on his personally / personal phone. A video of the moment he understood his mic was off has gone rival / viral on the Internet. It has received more than 653,000 views. After realizing what happened, professor Wang appeared / appearance shocked and stressed. He said he was upset at the thought of wasting two hours for / of his students' time. He has offered to redo / undo the lecture at a different time so his students do not miss that class. One of his students posted in / on social media about the professor's mishap. She wrote: "I took a class under him before and he teaches well. I feel bad to / for him."