

Health: Phrasal Verbs

Complete the sentences and the text below with these phrasal verbs:

get over = recuperate clog up = obstruct come down (with) = catch (an illness)
fight off = defend against throw up = vomit dose up (on/ with) = medicate let up = cease or diminish lay low = make someone weak

1. Many children _____ an ear infection even before their first birthday.
2. High fat foods can _____ our arteries.
3. Most people _____ a cold within two weeks.
4. The flu usually _____ people _____ for four to ten days.
5. A cold continues at its peak for several days, then it gradually _____.
6. The human body's immune defenses usually _____ viruses.

I always _____ with colds. In fact, I was suffering from one last weekend. I hate it when your nose _____ so much that you can't breathe and you feel like you're going to _____. I'm _____ it now though. People say that you should _____ with vitamin C to _____ colds _____. I take vitamin C every day but they still _____ me _____ every autumn.

When was the last time you came down with a cold?
How long did it take you to get over it?
How did you fight it off?

Cold facts

Children come down with about 5 to 7 colds per year and adults average about 2 or 3.

Colds lay low more women than men.

Dosing up on antibiotics won't fight off colds because they are viral, not bacterial.

A fever helps you to get over a cold by activating the immune system.

Our noses produce mucus to protect the lungs from germs. The mucus then runs down your throat, out your nose, or clogs up your sinuses.

Most colds let up after seven to 10 days.