

1 Circle the word (a–c) that cannot be used to complete the sentences.

- 1 Our bookshop sells novels by _____ of the world's best writers.
a many b some c much
- 2 _____ painter made a speech.
a Each b Every c All
- 3 The actors received _____ of the money that was earned from ticket sales.
a a few b some c a little
- 4 _____ of the performers were tired after the show.
a Some b All c Every
- 5 _____ people think that anybody can produce modern art.
a Many b Much c Some
- 6 _____ of the paintings were uninteresting.
a A few b Most c A little
- 7 I go to the theatre _____ time I visit the city.
a every b some c each
- 8 _____ of us love a good story.
a Every b Most c All

2. Circle the correct words to complete the text.

Last summer, ¹some / much of my classmates went to a big rock festival ²held / holding in the grounds of an old castle. Only ³a little / a few of them had been to a concert before, and no one had spent so ⁴much / many time away from home. ⁵Every / All time a band they knew started to play, they shouted really loud. When Super Animals came on ⁶playing / played their biggest hit, my friends went crazy. ⁷Each / Every of them jumped in the air pretending to play imaginary guitars!

3 Fill in the gaps with a lot of, much, many, how much, how many.

- 1 There were people in the streets.
- 2 Are there new students this year?
- 3 There isn't cheese left in the fridge.
- 4 backpackers travel to the east coast every summer.
- 5 We went to that hotel because we didn't have options.
- 6 milk do you want in your coffee?
- 7 Not people know his secret.
- 8 Was there turbulence during the flight?

9 There are things that I haven't told you yet.

10 visitors does this museum have every day?

4. Fill in the gaps with few, little, a few, a little.

1. Were there any people at the conference? 'Yes, .

2. There were people on the beach because it was raining.

3. We have very money, so we can't afford to buy a new car.

4. I've got cranberries. Let's make a cake.

5. There is coffee left. Would you like one?

6. We've bought new cushions for the sofa.

7. I've got money saved; I think I'll buy a new bike.

8. There are things that I haven't told you. I always tell you everything.

9. I speak English, so when I'm in England I don't have problems.

10. There's very snow in the street. We don't need the snow boots.

11. I have good friends. I'm not lonely.

12. He has education. He can't read or write, and he can hardly count.

13. There are people she really trusts. It's a bit sad.

14. We've got time at the weekend. Would you like to meet?

15. She has self-confidence. She has a lot of trouble talking to new people.

16. London has sunshine in the winter. That's why so many British people go on holiday to sunny places!

17. Do you need information on English grammar? I have books on the topic if you would like to borrow them.

18. Are you thirsty? There's juice left in this bottle, if you'd like it.

