

- Listen and choose.

What were you doing when the storm began?

When the lightning hit and the water ran.

Where were you when the rain came down?

On the mountain, at the beach, in the forest or the town.

I was up the mountain,

He was over the lake,

We were in the park,

She was a piece of cake.

They were in the river,

He was on the sea,

She was up a wall,

I was under a tree.
