Reading

A Read the article about the Atacama Desert.

Visit the Atacama – the driest desert on earth

If you want to get away from the rain and the cold and see things you never knew existed, go to the Atacama Desert in the north of Chile. People usually stay in the town of San Pedro de Atacama, where you can find luxury hotels, youth hostels and campsites. It won't rain while you are in San Pedro as it usually only rains for about ten minutes a year!

The weather is mostly good all year round. In winter, it will be around 22°C during the day, and about 4°C at night. In summer, it's hotter, but not as hot as you might think. It doesn't usually go above 30°C, but at night it's quite cool, so you need to take warm clothes with you.

There is a lot to see in the Atacama region. Here are some of the places you shouldn't miss:

San Pedro de Atacama

San Pedro de Atacama

If you are staying in San Pedro, you should visit the 18th century church and the museum, where you can learn about the history of the region and its indigenous people. There are also lots of good restaurants, and shops where you can buy souvenirs.

Valley of the Moon

About 15 minutes drive from San Pedro, this strange valley looks more like the surface of the moon than part of the earth. There hasn't been a drop of rain here for hundreds of years. The best time to visit is just before sunset. You can climb to the top of a sand dune and watch the sun go down. The moon-like landscape will change from gold to pink to purple. It is a sight you will never forget.

Atacama Salt Flat

This is the biggest salt flat in Chile. Only half an hour away from San Pedro, the land is white with a thick layer of salt, surrounded by mountains and volcanoes. Nearby you can also visit Cejas lagoon and float in its salty water.

Tara Salt Flat

Two-and-a-half hours' drive away is the amazing Tara Salt Flat, more than 4,500 metres above sea level. Here you will see pink flamingoes wandering around and feeding in the lagoon. There are many other species of birds feeding here and if you are lucky, you might see a Darwin's rhea, a large bird that can't fly and which is in danger of becoming extinct.

Finally, when you get back to San Pedro, don't forget to look at the night sky. It is one of the clearest night skies in the world. The moon and stars shine more brightly here than anywhere else on the earth.
