

Name:

Imagine each sentence is a real event. Imagine what you would say to your friend and answer the question. Read the sentence and write your advice. Use the structure: You/I should. For example:

Imagine: Your friend John is riding his bike without a helmet. What should he do?

You say: "You should wear a helmet because you need to protect your head!"

1. Your friend Bob at school keeps falling asleep at his desk and has trouble paying attention in class. What should he do?

2. Your dog Fluffy is gaining weight. It is getting fatter and fatter. What should you do?

3. Your friend Sally eats fast food everyday. What should she do?

4. Your friend wants to know how to be active and stay fit. What should he do?

5. Your friend John has been feeling sad. What should he do?

6. Your friend Kathy gets sick a lot. What should she do?

7. Your friend Jake is coughing and sneezing around everyone. What should he do?

8. Your little sister was outside playing in the dirt. What should she do?