

Complete the anecdote by putting the verbs in brackets into the correct tense.

Use narrative tenses.

I remember my first driving lesson like it was yesterday. 1. _____
(just / have) my 17th birthday when my parents 2. _____ (say) I could start learning to drive. My older sister 3. _____ (already / pass) her test and she 4. _____ (save) to buy her first car. On the morning of the lesson, I was really nervous. I 5. _____ (not sleep) very well the night before and I 6. _____ (feel) a bit sick. Then there was a knock at the door my instructor 7. _____ (arrive).

He talked me through the controls and gave me really clear instructions.
A few minutes later, We 8. _____ (drive) round a quiet part of town when I 9. _____ (see) a friend out of the corner of my eye. He waved at me and — without thinking — I waved back. The car I 10. _____
(move) towards a tree when the instructor 11. _____ (grab) the wheel.
'Keep your eyes on the road!' he shouted. I went bright red and couldn't believe what I 12. _____ (just / do). When we 13. _____ (drive) home, I 14. _____ (not say) a word. I 15. _____ (concentrate) hard so that I didn't make another mistake. It was the longest journey of my life!