

BUY IT !

VOCABULARY

Instruction: Write the correct answer in the box. Use the bold words in page 37 for your answer.

To compare the price and quality of the products being sold at the different shops before you buy anything

To spend a short period of time doing a lot of shopping

To shop until you are too tired to continue

To go shopping (usually for useless things) believing that it will make you feel better

To look goods in shop windows, without intending to buy it

The things that you have bought from the supermarket, shops etc

When you buy goods or services over the internet

Somebody who is addicted to shopping and cannot stop him/herself