

INTRODUCTION AND THE CONCEPT OF TEACHING ENGLISH

1. The Teaching of English and learning strategies have been linked to...
(Choose the correct option)
  - a) Learning models
  - b) Teaching studies
  - c) Learning experiences
2. As teachers we may need to select: (Choose the correct option)
  - a) alternative teaching and learning strategies or adapt those suggested to deliver the content.
  - b) different teaching styles to develop easy content.
  - c) alternative teaching methods for the class to enjoy what we teach.
3. When teachers are asked to check for students' individual differences it means that every student needs an individual work program. (Choose the correct option)

True      False      We didn't talk about that      I don't know

4. Teachers should use their professional judgement to check the strategies and decide on the most appropriate for the needs of their pupils. (Choose the correct option)

True      False      We didn't talk about that      I don't know

5. it is important teachers select strategies that: (Match the sentences)

Focus on the development of knowledge,	students' learning
Assist students to	achieve education standards.
Support and extend	understandings and skills
Enable students to make progress and	engage in the content

6. Teachers conducting values learning activities should act as a facilitator and remain non-judgemental of students who display beliefs that may not agree with their particular stance on an issue. Teachers should also make students aware that:
(Drag and drop to complete correct sentences)

form	people	Sometimes	being	without	well	informed	opinions

contribute	to	often	experiences	opinions	Personal

Peers, family, society, media and values	culture	influence	will

--------	---------	-----------	------