The legend says that Amulius deposed (1) _____ and confined his (2) _____ so that she would become a (3) _____. Being a virgin, she would have no sons. This meant that Amulius wouldn't have (4) _____.

Nonetheless, war god Mars (5) _____ on Rhea Silvia and got her (6) _____. Once the babies were born, Amulius wouldn't dare to kill (7) _____ with his own hands because he didn't want to anger the war god.

However, he feared that (8) _____. For that reason, he ordered that the (9) _____ should be (10) _____ in a remote (11) _____. Unable to (12) _____ the babies, Amulius's men put them into a (13) _____ and (14) _____ into the (15) _____.

Later, a (16) _____ found the babies and (17) _____ with her own (18) _____. It is said that then a shepherd (19) _____ the children to his (20) _____, where he raised them with (21) _____, a woman called Lupa.

Having grown up, the twins decided to (22) _____ of their own right at the foot of the Palatine and the Capitoline Hills. After a fight, (23) _____ killed his brother (24) _____, and named the city (25) _____ after his own name.

During those times, the (26) _____ didn't have many inhabitants, especially women. The Romans welcomed people from different backgrounds, even runaway (27) _____ and (28) _____. Since the city lacked enough women, Romulus thought it wouldn't last long and sought for (29) _____ and abducted the (30) _____women for marriage.

LIVEWORKSHEETS