

A food festival

Listen to a radio interview with a woman who has organised a food festival. Write a word or phrase in each gap to complete the text.

Sarah works for a local charity organisation that gives poor children an opportunity to (1) _____. This year 'Wish you were here' has organised a food festival to raise enough money to send (2) _____ children to Cornwall in the summer. They are hoping to attract a lot of visitors and they have already decided that if the food festival is popular, it will take place (3) _____ year.

There is plenty to do and see at the festival. You can buy food from many (4) _____ and you don't need to break the bank because meals are inexpensive. Children are welcome and their meals only cost (5) _____.

You can learn new skills at the festival too. A famous chef is going to teach festival-goers how to cook (6) _____. Organisers are hoping this will attract a lot of would-be chefs.

Other events at the festival include face-painting and a (7) _____ competition which is open to participants from all age groups. Families will be especially pleased to see an area where their children can (8) _____.

The food festival is on (9) _____ and it starts at 10 o'clock. There is parking space for around 200 cars and admission is (10) _____.