

ADVERBS

Complete the tables.

Adjectives	Regular adverbs
slow slowly bad loud quiet lucky easy

Adjectives	Irregular adverbs
fast fast good well early late late hard

Complete the sentences with an adverb.

Complete the sentences. Use adverbs from the tables in Exercise 4c.

- I play the piano very badly, but I can sing quite
- She talks very It's often difficult to hear her.
- They missed the train because they arrived at the station.
- My English isn't very good. Can you speak more please?
- If you want to pass your exam, you need to study

Make adverbs from the adjectives and complete the sentences.

good	careful	hard
loud	stylish	happy
generous	beautiful

The ideal partner...

- ...does housework happily.
- ...dances
- ...cooks
- ...dresses
- ...drives
- ...gives presents
- ...works
- ...never speaks

- The Germans are careful drivers.
They drive carefully.
- The French cook perfect meals.
They cook
- The British are very polite.
They speak very
- The Brazilians are good at football.
They play football
- The Japanese are very hard workers.
They work very
- The Canadians eat healthy food.
They eat
- The Swedish speak beautiful English.
They speak English

Adjectives or Adverbs?

Circle the correct answer.

- My brother's a very careful / carefully driver.
- Frank cooks very good / well.
- Elena wears very stylish / stylishly clothes.
- He always speaks very aggressive / aggressively to me.
- He's very quiet / quietly. He never says anything!
- She's generous / generously. She gives nice presents.
- My French is very bad / badly.
- Can you speak more slow / slowly?