

VOCABULARY : LOVE

Level 9-10. Unit 4. Lesson 3.

Instructions: Match the expressions with the definitions.

1) Adore someone ____	A) To develop a deep romantic or sexual attachment to someone.
2) Be devoted to someone ____	B) You are strongly attracted to someone and start loving them.
3) Be fascinated by someone ____	C) To be very interested in something or someone.
4) Be fond of someone ____	D) It is the urban expression for being infatuated.
5) Be head over heels in love with someone ____	E) When you fall in love with a person without really knowing them.
6) Be infatuated by someone ____	F) To love and respect (someone) deeply. Worship or venerate.
7) Care for someone ____	G) It can mean anything from liking something a little to be extremely, almost absurdly interested in something. This word sometimes implies foolishness and absurdity: almost like you love something so much that you've lost your mind.
8) Fall for someone ____	H) to love someone, especially in a way that is based on friendship rather than physical attraction
9) Fall in love ____	I) to honor or respect someone
10) Have a crush on someone ____	J) To be focused on that particular thing or person almost exclusively.
11) Worship someone ____	K) People say they're ____ when they feel disoriented and swept up by their romantic feelings.
