Hi Jerry!

Did you just get back from a trip?

Yeah. We camping. What a trip!

it fun?

Fun? That's not exactly what I'd call it.
We a lot of problems!

That's too bad. What happened?

It all when we to the campsite on Friday evening.

We unloaded the car, then down and some juice.

We happy that we had such a beautiful camping spot.

After a while my wife I should go park the car.

I in my pocket for the keys,
but they there.

I couldn't remember where I had them.

So what did you do?

I must have an hour
or so looking for my keys.

Everyone me a hand, but the keys nowhere to be

We really they were for good.

Finally, I looked in the car and that my keys were still in the ignition!

By that time, it dark and we still hadn't pitched the tent

We had never up a tent before, so we the instructions quickly,

but we nothing of what was there.

I think we were too tired.

Luckily, someone camping nearby, to help us.

Did the rest of the trip go okay?

Not exactly.

I had some newspaper and matches,

so I the fire to cook our food,

We tried to cook some hot dogs over it, but they all

When the flame died down, we cooked some more hotdogs and every bite. We had so hungry!

Were you able to sleep in the tent?

We hardly all night, because we by mosquitoes.

When we up in the morning, our bodies really itchy.

you do anything fun with your family in the campsite?

Yes, we did! On Saturday, we in the lake.

My son hadn't before, so I him how to swim.

We so much fun!

Later that day, I out in a canoe on the lake with my daughter to catch some fish.

After a little while, she a big tug on the line.

She up to reel her line in,

but she out of the canoe!

I hope she how to swim!

Yes, she's a strong swimmer.

She back in the boat and a huge fish.

We cooked it for dinner that night. It was delicious!
