

Rearrange the sentences to form three paragraph

- He grew up in a village named Kuai which was beside the Moyong River.
- Long ago in Sarawak, there lived a great Kadazan warrior named Monsopiad.
- Pirate who sailed down the river often attacked and robbed his village.

Paragraph 1

- This made him vow to search for the pirates and to behead their village.
- So, Monsopiad set out with three boys to look for the pirates.
- One day, Monsopiad overheard some women saying that the men in his village were weaklings because they could not protect the village.

Paragraph 2

- Monsopiad soon overpowered them because he was a skilful warrior.
- Five weak later, he found the pirates and fought with them.
- From that day onwards, Kuai was safe from the attack of pirates.
- The villagers praised and thanked him for killing their enemies.

Paragraph 3
