

First Certificate Language Practice
English Grammar and Vocabulary 4th Edition
Michael Vince

Revision: Grammar units 16 -20

1) Match each sentence with a function. Write the letter.

- 1) Sorry, but I won't go to the cinema with you. ____
- 2) Why don't we go to the park? ____
- 3) Great! Congratulations! ____
- 4) Could you please open the window? ____
- 5) May I go to the party tonight? ____
- 6) Pardon? ____
- 7) Watch out! ____
- 8) That is very kind of you. ____
- 9 I'd rather have a salad. ____
- 10 Cheers! ____

- a) Suggesting.
- b) Showing that you have misheard or misunderstood.
- c) Thanking.
- d) Expressing preferences
- e) Refusing.
- f) Making a request
- g) Asking for permission.
- h) Wishing someone good health when drinking
- i) Expressing happiness at sb's success.
- j) Giving a warning.

2) Complete each sentence with one suitable word. Do not use the word "piece"

- 1) There is another _____ of stairs.
- 2) During the storm there was a _____ of thunder.
- 3) Could you give me another _____ of paper?
- 4) There is a fantastic _____ of news in this newspaper.
- 5) He has a full _____ of hair.
- 6) Do you want another _____ of cake?

7) I gave Susan a _____ of cutlery for her birthday.

8) Could you give me a _____ of water, please?

3) Choose the most suitable word or phrase in each sentence.

Mary didn't pass her French exam, but she _____ her best (made/did/had)

This is the _____ film I have ever watched (better/best/good)

I'm feeling _____ tired (more and more/farther/a lot)

I wish Tom worked as well as Brenda _____ (does/did/do)

We have never had _____ clever dog. (So/such a/ as much a)