

NEWS REPORT!

1.- Read the news and write questions to match the answers.

Last week in New York City, thousands of crazy fans were present at the grand opening of Videoland, the largest video store in the world! The new store, created by Pear Computers Inc., will bring the magical touch of video games to a new dimension.

After showing seven super fantastic 3D video games, the Marketing Director of Pear Computers, J. K. Jacobs, said he and his designers had created the most amazing video game; a game in which reality and virtual reality come together. He said, "Now fans can relive their favorite moments from video games at the theme park in our store, and they will never forget the experience!"

- a. Who _____? Pear Computers Inc., J. K. Jacobs.
- b. What _____? Videoland.
- c. When _____? Last week.
- d. Where _____? New York City.
- e. How _____? By combining reality and virtual reality at Videoland's Amusement Park.
- f. Why _____? Because they wanted to take video games to a new dimension.

2.- Based on the news report in activity 1, invent and write a probable title, and draw an image in your notebook. Share your ideas with your classmates and teacher.