

Notice verb forms

v1 = notice
v2 = noticed v3 = noticed
v4 = noticing
v5 = notices

22

Verb:

SPEAK

Speak means: say something in order to convey information or an opinion

V1	V2	V3
Speak	Spoke	Spoken

Synonym Words For SPEAK

- | | | | |
|---------|--------------|---------------|-------------|
| • go | • whisper | • chat | • chew |
| • say | • allege | • communicate | • converse |
| • shout | • articulate | • convey | • descant |
| • tell | • assert | • declare | • discourse |
| • utter | • aver | • deliver | • drawl |
| • voice | • blab | • express | • enunciate |

Examples

- They must speak.
- I can speak English fluently.
 - They spoke quietly.
- She can speak Spanish, too.
- Please speak in a low voice.

PHRASAL VERBS WITH SPEAK

Speak for

Speak on somebody's behalf

E.g. I think I speak for the whole group when I say that we're glad you came.

Speak for

Represent an intrinsic quality

E.g. You really do deserve to be published - your recent articles speak for themselves.

Speak for oneself

Provide an opinion only on one's own behalf

E.g. I'm here speaking for myself, not for my company.

Speak of

Bespeak; show; indicate; foretell; suggest

E.g. This act speaks of his kindness.

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Destroy verb forms

v1 = destroy
v2 = destroyed
v3 = destroyed
v4 = destroying v5 = destroys

BUILD

DESTROY

Phrasal Verbs for ENVIRONMENT

Wipe out

To destroy something completely

People worry that climate change will wipe out coffee crops in certain countries.

Cut down

Kill trees

African forests is being cut down.

Use up

Finish a supply of something

I've used up all my holiday entitlement.

Break down

To decompose

Plastics don't break down quickly.

Throw away

To discard an item that is no longer useful

Consumers throw away around 50 billion plastic bags annually.

Run out of

Finish the supply of something

We'll run out of air long before we need food and water.

Die out

Stop existing

This animal will die out here very long.

LIVEWORKSHEETS