

ALL ABOUT SOUND

Name: _____

Group: _____

A. Choose the correct option:

1. Sounds can travel _____ some objects, such as a wooden door.

- A. over
- B. under
- C. through
- D. around

2. When you hit a drum, you hear a _____ sound.

- A. screeching
- B. whistling
- C. beeping
- D. booming

3. Your ear sends messages to your

- A. brain.
- B. eyes.
- C. fingers.
- D. feet.

4. At the end of the book, the children

- A. made a band.
- B. watched a movie.
- C. asked a question.
- D. ate a snack.

5. A voice is a sound and so is a

- A. freshly-baked cake.
- B. glass of milk.
- C. falling leaf.
- D. ringing telephone.

6. You can make a sound on a guitar by

- A. strumming the strings.
- B. ringing a bell.
- C. blowing a whistle.
- D. shaking the neck.

7. Dolphins and whales can talk underwater because

- A. sound can travel through water.
- B. they smile at each other.
- C. they wave at each other.
- D. sound can travel through the air.

8. Vibrations make

- A. tastes.
- B. smells.
- C. pictures.
- D. sounds.

9. You can see a _____ vibrate if you hold one end flat on a table, pull down the other end, and let go.

- A. sweater
- B. ruler
- C. marble
- D. pillow

10. In this book, a VIBRATION means a

- A. falling movement.
- B. flying movement.
- C. scary movement.
- D. back and forth movement.

11. Inside your ear, _____ vibrate.

- A. blood cells
- B. muscles
- C. nerves
- D. very small bones

12. Some sounds are music, singing, talking and

- A. thinking.
- B. watching.
- C. tasting.
- D. laughing.

13. A radio stops vibrating when you

- A. turn it on.
- B. turn it off.
- C. change the channel.
- D. move the speaker.

14. A person can _____ to make sounds.

- A. take a nap
- B. be very quiet
- C. hit a pot with a spoon
- D. hide behind a tree

15. You can hear someone shout across a room because

- A. sound can hurt.
- B. sound can travel.
- C. some people have loud voices.
- D. some people have soft voices.

16. When you speak, your

- A. elbow wiggles.
- B. nose twitches.
- C. hair moves.
- D. throat vibrates.