

“BIOMES OF THE WORLD”

1. Write the correct biome at the end of the sentences. WRITE THE CORRECT NUMBER

1 RAINFOREST - 2 TUNDRA - 3 TAIGA - 4 GRASSLAND - 5 FRESHWATER - 6 OCEAN -
7 TEMPERATE FOREST -

DESERT

EXAMPLE: There are lions, zebras and elephants in this biome.....4.....

- a. this biome is located around the Equator parallel.....
- b. The ground is always frozen for most of the year.....
- c. There is a lot of grass and few short trees in this biome
- d. There are a lot of amphibians living in ponds and lakes.....
- e. This biome has four seasons and trees lose their leaves in winter.....
- f. There may be new medicines to be discovered in this biome.....
- g. It is the driest biome on Earth and few plants can live.....
- h. You can find a Zebra and an elephant eating there
- i. There are evergreen trees spite of heavy snow.....
- j. Summers are short but there is sunlight almost 24 hours a day.....
- k. A cactus can easily live there with little water in this biome.....
- l. There are coral reefs and lot of colorful fish living in this biome
- m. Shark, swordfish and manta ray share this environment
- n. Only three percent of all the water in the planet belongs to this biome
- o. This biome is always almost frozen and it is north of the taiga.....
- p. Half of all the animal and plant species live in this biome.....

Complete the sentences of this food chain. DRAG AND DROP.

Dandelion plant praying mantis grasshopper sparrow falcon bacteria

This trophic relationship starts with the producer which uses the energy from the sun water and soil to make its own food. Then, the dandelion leaves are eaten by.....

which is then hunted and consumed by the This insect is eaten by a

Small bird are often eaten by larger birds of prey like the

Finally,are fed with the wastes produced by this food chain.

Classify the organism

Grass Snake frog worm aphid grasshopper owl bacteria fungi rabbit bush

PRODUCERS:

PRIMARY CONSUMERS:

SECONDARY CONSUMERS:

TERTIARY CONSUMERS:

DECOMPOSER:

Complete the definitions

Habitats Biosphere Biomes

..... is the part of the Earth where there are living things

..... are the ecosystems with several types of habitats

..... are the places where individual populations live

Consequences of human activity.

Overfishing deforestation forest fires pollution

Broken pieces of glass and cigarettes can cause this natural disaster.....

People take too many resources from this biome causing changes in the food chain.....

..... cause the destruction of many habitats around the world causing species to extinct

Releasing dangerous substances into the soil and water and also plastic is causing a serious

..... Problem in the world