Spanish Plurals

1. General rules for making a singular noun in Spanish into a plural:
   - For nouns ending in a vowel, add an –s to make it plural (gato = gatos)
   - For nouns that end in a consonant, add –es to make it plural (doctor = doctors)
   - For nouns that end in –z, replace the –z with –ces (pez = peces)
   - For nouns that refer to a mixed group, use the masculine plural form (2 gatos + 1 gata = 3 gatos)

2. Make the following nouns plural:

   Zapato - _____

   Perro - _____

   Lápiz - _____

   Manzana - _____

   Pan - _____

   Libro - _____

   Flor - _____
