

1 Choose the correct forms.

1. I hope it isn't raining / won't rain next weekend.
2. I need a new MP3 player, so I will buy / am going to buy one tomorrow.
3. Robert called yesterday. He is arriving / will arrive at about 4 pm tomorrow.
4. Probably, she is winning / will win an award for her role in this film.
5. We meet / are meeting in front of the cinema at 6.30 pm.
6. Look out! You are going to break / are breaking that window.
7. Maybe they will phone / are going to phone us tomorrow.
8. We will go / are going out for a meal at 8 pm tonight.
9. She wants to learn to play the guitar, so she is going to buy / will buy one next week.
10. I don't think he will pass / is passing his exams next month. He isn't studying at all!
11. They arrive / are arriving tomorrow afternoon.
12. Be careful or you are going to fall / are falling down.

2 Complete the sentences with the verbs in brackets in the correct first conditional form.

1 She _____ (not win) the competition if she _____ (not practise) really hard.

2 If he _____ (arrive) by train tomorrow, I _____ (meet) him at the station.

3 We _____ (go) cycling tomorrow if it _____ (not be) very cold.

4 If you _____ (not enjoy) this film, I _____ (find) another one.

5 He _____ (not catch) the train if we _____ (not give) him a lift to the station.

6 If I _____ (get) this job, I _____ (earn) a lot of money.

7 She _____ (go) to the cinema with us tomorrow if she _____ (not be) busy.

8 I _____ (take) him to the doctor if he _____ (not feel) any better tomorrow.

LIVEWORKSHEETS