

set by Shweta Sharma (M.S. Vivekanand, Deoghar, Jharkhand)

B

Word power

1. India is a land of festivals. Apart from national festivals like Gandhi Jayanti, Independence Day and Republic Day, every festival has a social, religious and mythological value. People forget all their differences and observe these festivals with a sense of togetherness. Can you guess the different festivals from the clues given below ?

A festival of lights -

The national festival to mark Indian freedom -

A festival celebrated at the end of a month long fasting -

A harvest festival of Kerala-

A harvest festival of Jharkhand-

A festival of Bihar in which the sun god is worshipped-

A festival that marks the birthday of Jesus Christ-

A festival celebrated on the birthday of Guru Nanak Dev-

A festival of Jharkhand in which the sal tree is worshipped-

The festival of colours-

KEY- SARHUL, CHHATH, EID, HOLI, KARMA, INDEPENDENCE DAY, GURUPARAB, DIWALI, CHRISTMAS, ONAM