

Saturday jobs

Read the story and follow the tasks

1 Saturday jobs

1 It's Saturday. Sally is at home.

On Saturdays we do jobs at home.

2 I wash the car.

3 Mum goes shopping.

4 Dad cleans the house.

5 Joey cleans his cage.

6 Craig washes the dishes.

Where's Craig?

7 Craig! Come and wash the dishes.

The comic strip consists of seven panels. Panel 1 shows Sally at home with a bucket and sponge, saying 'On Saturdays we do jobs at home.' Panel 2 shows Sally washing a blue car, saying 'I wash the car.' Panel 3 shows Mum in a supermarket aisle, saying 'Mum goes shopping.' Panel 4 shows Dad vacuuming a red sofa, saying 'Dad cleans the house.' Panel 5 shows a parrot cleaning its cage with a brush, saying 'Joey cleans his cage.' Panel 6 shows Sally in the kitchen looking at a sink full of dishes, saying 'Where's Craig?' and 'Craig washes the dishes.' Panel 7 shows Sally calling Craig from the doorway, saying 'Craig! Come and wash the dishes.' Craig is sitting on a soccer ball in the garden.

1) Answer

- What does Saly do on Saturday?
- What does mum do on Saturday?
- What does dad do on Saturday?
- What does Craig do on Saturday?

2) What do they do on Saturday?

3) Turn the sentences from above into sentences containing she/he. Follow the example.

"She goes shopping."

Now, it's your turn!

- He _____.
- She _____.
- He _____.

4) Discover the words and write

On Saturday, I wash the dishes.

My mum goes shopping.

My dad cleans the house.

Joey cleans his cage.

Sally washes the car.

Craig

On Saturdays, I wash the dishes.
