

Vocabulary

Science

1 Match.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 drive <input type="checkbox"/> | a into space |
| 2 travel <input type="checkbox"/> | b renewable sources of energy |
| 3 grow <input type="checkbox"/> | c electricity |
| 4 use <input type="checkbox"/> | d longer |
| 5 make <input type="checkbox"/> | e your clothes and furniture |
| 6 live <input type="checkbox"/> | f a cure |
| 7 design <input type="checkbox"/> | g a smart car |
| 8 find <input type="checkbox"/> | h genetically modified crops |

2 Complete the sentences with some of the expressions from Exercise 1.

- I am visiting a car exhibition in Germany next month and I would really like to _____!
- Scientists are trying to _____. This can solve the problem of food in countries with poor soil.
- The development of new medicines will help people to _____ and better.
- In South America, we have fantastic scientists who are trying to _____ for many diseases.
- My mum couldn't believe her ears when she learnt that 3D machines can _____.

Grammar

Will: affirmative, negative and questions (2)

Adverbs: comparative and superlative forms

3 Complete the table.

Adverb	Comparative	Superlative
hard	_____	_____
_____	_____	the most easily
well	_____	_____
_____	more difficult	_____
_____	_____	the most safely long	_____	_____

4 Write sentences and questions about the future using the adverbs in the comparative form.

- cars / move / fast?

- people / not drive / dangerous

- people / live long / good?

- people in big cities / live / safe

- 3D technology / help / people / effective

- space travel / not be / expensive

- we / travel / comfortable?

- fruit and vegetables / square / fit in fridge / easy

5 Choose the correct options.

- I think that people will live more comfortable / the most comfortably ever in high-tech homes.
- Robots will work harder / the hardest, so people won't work anymore.
- In five years, smartphones and computers will work more efficiently / most efficiently.
- Cars will take us more safe / more safely around the city.
- Next year, I'll speak English the most fluently / more fluent of all.