Vocabulary

Science

1 Match.

1 drive ☐   a into space
2 travel ☐   b renewable sources of energy
3 grow ☐   c electricity
4 use ☐   d longer
5 make ☐   e your clothes and furniture
6 live ☐   f a cure
7 design ☐   g a smart car
8 find ☐   h genetically modified crops

2 Complete the sentences with some of the expressions from Exercise 1.

1 I am visiting a car exhibition in Germany next month and I would really like to _____!

2 Scientists are trying to _____. This can solve the problem of food in countries with poor soil.

3 The development of new medicines will help people to _____ and better.

4 In South America, we have fantastic scientists who are trying to _____ for many diseases.

5 My mum couldn't believe her ears when she learnt that 3D machines can _____.

Grammar

Will: affirmative, negative and questions (2)
Adverbs: comparative and superlative forms

3 Complete the table.

Adverb	Comparative	Superlative
hard	_____	_____
_____	_____	the most easily
well	_____	_____
_____	more difficult	_____
_____	_____	the most safely long	_____	_____

4 Write sentences and questions about the future using the adverbs in the comparative form.

1 cars / move / fast?
_____

2 people / not drive / dangerous
_____

3 people / live long / good?
_____

4 people in big cities / live / safe
_____

5 3D technology / help / people / effective
_____

6 space travel / not be / expensive
_____

7 we / travel / comfortable?
_____

8 fruit and vegetables / square / fit in fridge / easy
_____

5 Choose the correct options.

1 I think that people will live more comfortable / the most comfortably ever in high-tech homes.

2 Robots will work harder / the hardest, so people won't work anymore.

3 In five years, smartphones and computers will work more efficiently / most efficiently.

4 Cars will take us more safe / more safely around the city.

5 Next year, I'll speak English the most fluently / more fluent of all.

LIVEWORKSHEETS