

Vocabulary and Listening

Verbs of movement (1)

- 1  2.46 Listen and repeat the verbs of movement in the box. Which can you do without any equipment?

sail fly climb drive cross fall crash carry pull push follow arrive take off land

AROUND THE WORLD BY BICYCLE

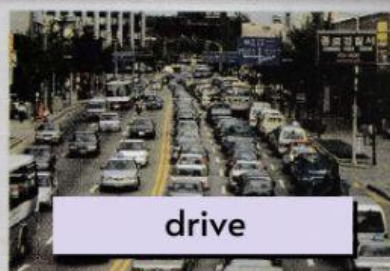

Guim Vallis Teruel from Spain has become the first person to cycle around the world on an electric bicycle! Here are some photos of what he saw on his trip.

It's easy to (1) ... things with an electric bicycle!

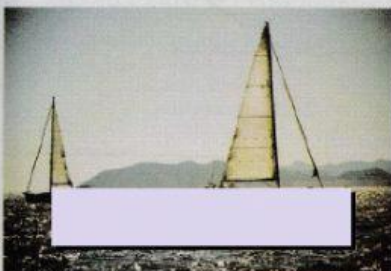

The great thing about an electric bicycle is that you never need to (2) ... it up hills!

drive

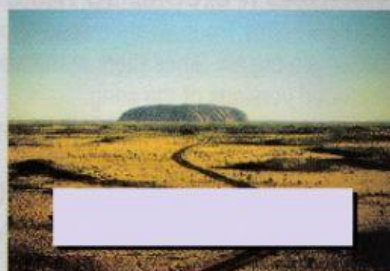

Cycling isn't much fun when everyone else prefers to (3) ...

It's so relaxing to (4) ... across the ocean.

Guim managed to (5) ... to the top of Mount Fuji in Japan – without his bicycle!

It took Guim weeks to (6) ... Australia in the heat!

- 2 Read the text and complete the sentences with words from exercise 1.

- 3  2.47 Listen and check your answers to exercise 2.

- 4 How do you think electric bicycles are different from normal bicycles?

- 5  2.48 Listen to a TV programme about electric bicycles and copy and complete the notes.

Electric bikes

- also called (1) ...
- power comes from a (2) ...
- fastest speed: (3) ...
- popular in (4) ...
- cost in the UK from (5) £...

- 6 Listen again and answer the questions.

- 1 Where do people still prefer cars?
- 2 How does the man usually travel to work?
- 3 What is the problem with cycling in the centre of London?
- 4 Which part of the man's journey is easier for him than for other cyclists?
- 5 Give one advantage of e-bicycles.
- 6 Give one disadvantage of e-bicycles.

4. How do you think electric bicycles are different from normal bicycles.
(Drag and drop the answer into the right column)

expensive

lightweight

manually pedal

difficult to cycle uphill battery-powered

require physical strength

ELECTRIC BICYCLES

NORMAL BICYCLES

	require physical strength