

Listen and fill in the gaps with the missing words.

Being single has its _____ and disadvantages. I think it's better to stay single when you're young. You need to live and have fun. You also need the _____ to do what you want, when you want. Being single in your _____ gives you lots of time to go travelling, see the world and experience different things. Most people like being single in their twenties and then want to _____ down in their thirties. I think being single later in life can be _____. All of your friends are married or attached and people _____ to go out and party less. I think being single when you're old would be very _____. The longer you stay single, the harder it becomes to settle down. In some countries, people think you're _____ if you're single later on in life.
