

Sentences into noun clauses

WRITE IN CAPITAL LETTERS.

1 I've had indigestion ever since eating dinner. What I had for dinner has...	2 We were all surprised by Jane's news. What Jane said ...	3 If you want to meet people, why not take evening classes? Taking evening classes is a great way ...
4 Her main worry was failing her driving test again. She feared that she'd ...	5 I'm pretty sure most people would like to have more free time. Don't most people wish they ...	6 I felt so encouraged by my friends' comments. What my friends said was ...
7 What would stop her from taking the job? We will never understand why she ...	8 Pets do make for great companions. The wonderful thing about pets is that they keep ...	9 When our team lost we were so disappointed. Everybody is really disappointed ...
10 He suddenly realised there was no point in staying on. It suddenly struck him that ...	11 John was spotted trying to leave the party. John's plan to leave the party unnoticed ...	12 It's uncertain whether they will arrive on time. Whether or not they'll arrive ...

13 I'm afraid I can't take tomorrow off. It's impossible for me to take the ...	14 That last soloist has real talent. Whoever played that last ...	15 If there's one thing my aunt loves, it's being taken out for dinner. My aunt loves ...
16 It's fantastic to hear you succeeding in getting that job. That you managed to get ...	17 Which route should I take to get to the airport? I wonder which route ...	18 What is the name of the new head of department? I don't know what the ...