

NAME :

CLASS :

PBD

Reading (Part 5)

Read the blog. Six sentences are missing. Choose from the sentences below (A-H) to fill the gaps. There are two extra sentences which you do not need to use.

	Cycling	Backpacking	Train Rides	Cruising
SEKINCHAN
18 July 20_____
Having been cooped up indoors during the Movement Control Order (MCO), we were aching for a bit of travel. As Malaysia had entered its recovery stage then, Fred suggested cycling around Sekinchan. _____ (1). We woke up bright and early and drove down to Sekinchan.
Let me tell you more about Sekinchan. _____ (2). It is known for its picturesque paddy fields and fishing village. It's about one and a half hour's drive from the city. People come here for a short getaway and it is a splendid cycling destination.
Upon arrival, we took our foldable bikes out and set off into the midst of the lush green paddy fields. _____ (3). Dew drops on the paddy plants glistened and shimmered as a gentle breeze blew. _____ (4). Jamal, our self-appointed photographer, stopped and took photos of them as they worked the field.
As we rode on, we came to the fishing village. _____ (5). Fishermen could be seen sorting out their catch before sending them off to the market. _____ (6). Tummies full, we headed back to the city feeling contented. What a wonderful way to spend our Saturday morning.

A

Farmers in the field waved at us happily as we cycled by.

B

We rode back to the town center and had a scrumptious breakfast of fluffy 'pau' and

C

There weren't farmers in sight in the fields

D

The sun was just waking up and the fields basked in its golden rays

E

Feeling hungry , we decided to have breakfast upon our return to the city

F

Called Shigengzhuang in Chinese, Sekinchan is an attractive little town in Sabak Bernam.

G

The colourful fishing boats which were anchored at the jetty bounced up and down lazily.

H

His suggestion was met with joy from all of us