READING COMPREHENSION

Mid term test 2021

Last weekend, it was raining and thundering all day. Eva was inside her house with her family. She wanted to be outside, riding her bike with friends, but it was impossible. She was tired of playing with her dollhouse. Her dad was reading a book for his book club meeting and mum was cooking a new recipe she learnt in her cookery class. Eva decided to watch tv. She was changing channels. First, she was watching a comedy show, but it wasn't fun at all! Then, she watched a horror movie but suddenly, the electricity went out! After that, she decided to cook a Moroccan orange cake. She was mixing the sugar, the butter and the eggs when her mobile phone rang. Her cousin Carol was calling to say she was coming home with a new boardgame. They played all day and ate Moroccan cake. While they were playing, the rain stopped and the sun came out! But the girls didn't even notice because they were having such a great time together!
