

SOME - ANY - A - AN

REMEMBER

We use some in positive sentences.

We use any in negative sentences and in interrogative sentences.

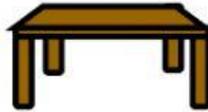

Affirmative

There are some books on the desk.

Negative

There aren't any books on the desk.

Interrogative

Are there any books on the desk?

Write according to the examples.

1. There's a lamp in the bedroom.
2. There are _____ books in the bookcase.
3. There aren't _____ chairs in the study.
4. Are there _____ chairs in the living room?
5. There's _____ armchair in the living room.

1. (fridge/kitchen)
There's a fridge in the kitchen.
2. (chairs/study)

3. (pillows/bedroom)

4. (shoes/bathroom)
